

Summary Paragraph

The summary paragraph is based on findings from each component and includes results of additional consultation. The summary is a review and synthesis reflecting the relative significance of and interrelationship among findings and areas of need. Consultant's findings should be noted or attached.

Main Areas of Strength: What is the child successful with in her daily life? What supports her in her play and learning? Which developmental domains are the strongest and/or are supportive of other domains?

Main Areas of Concern: What does she struggle with in her daily routines? What skills are not yet present? Are there any other developmental or behavioral concerns?

Any areas of significance related to health or medical issues, family dynamics and/or interpersonal relationships that impact the child's development

Whether or not the child is eligible for the NM FIT Program and, if so, under which category or categories of eligibility? Developmental Delay category MUST include domains and percentages of delay.

Recommendations and/or next steps to assist the child and family in addressing areas of concern – program options (e.g. - preschool or early intervention – PLEASE NOTE: this does NOT mean that specific early intervention services are recommended; consultation with additional specialists may be recommended in order to gain more information about the child, but specific ongoing services are only determined by the IFSP team once the outcomes have been developed); supportive play and/or care approaches that can be incorporated into daily routines (tummy time, practice using a spoon, cruising the couch, etc.)
